Taking the Real Estate Industry By Storm

Bergen County resident Heather “#Hurricane” Corrigan is sweeping the New Jersey real estate competition. Within a year of getting her real estate license, Heather achieved the Bronze Level NJ Realtors Circle of Excellence Sales Award by selling over 30 houses in 2018. As an agent at Remax Signature Homes in Closter, New Jersey, she has also earned the Top Agent and Conversion Awards as well as the Rising Star Award.

As impressive as her accolades are, the best indication of Heather’s inconceivable real estate success comes from five-star Zillow ratings, personal testimonials and repeat referrals she earns from her clients:

“Heather was fantastic to work with. She was incredibly responsive and on top of everything. She will not be outworked by anyone. We had an issue come up where the town initially denied us a C/O days before closing, and Heather found us a contractor, got the necessary work done and scheduled the re-inspection all within two days. I highly recommend her.”

“Heather’s tenacity and attention to detail made the process as stress-free as possible! Her organizational skills were a tremendous asset while dealing with all of the required inspections.”

“Do yourself a favor and go with Heather. She took care of everything and made the process extremely easy. We have worked with several realtors in the past, and Heather was outstanding. Highly recommended!”

Heather’s skyrocketing reputation in real estate is no surprise for this dynamo. She has been honing her keen sales and marketing skills for over 20 years as Vice President of Sales at GoGORILLA MEDIA, easily booking $2 million in sales a year.

When Heather is not hustling for her next real estate deal or booking the hottest media campaign, she is highly involved in her community: she is a member of Oradell’s Events Committee, the PTO, and is very involved in the Jewish community, having received the prestigious Hineni Award.

In her spare time, she and her husband Michael run an event planning business called “Heather’s Heydayz,” where they plan and execute any event, however big or small.

“Don’t miss the 4th annual Adult Halloween Party I’m organizing on Saturday, October 26 from 7–11PM,” said Heather. “It’s going to be a blast!” Each $45 ticket includes food, beer, wine and sangria as well as live music and costume prizes, and proceeds benefit kostumes4kids.org.

Whether you are buying your first house, upgrading to your dream home in New Jersey, or planning a special event, Heather Corrigan should be the first person you call to get the results you want. ❤️
